

INTHEMARGINS

BOOKREVIEWS

Kiss and Tell: A Trivial Study of Smooching
by Kevin Dwyer
Quirk Books, 2006, $14.95

While there's certainly nothing trivial about the act of kissing itself, everything about this little volume is trivial—it's length, it's content, it's scope ... which isn't really a problem when you consider the book's self-effacing subtitle. What Dwyer is trying to achieve is a fun, if curious, look at the history of kissing from Classical times all the way up to Monica Lewinsky kissing Bill Clinton (no, not that kiss). He does an admirable job of achieving that end, too, and, thankfully, without including a single how-to on lip-locking.

In fact, Kiss & Tell answered most of my burning questions about kissing. Like why is kissing sometimes called "necking"? It turns out that the term comes from the Roaring Twenties. In what is probably his most lucid observation, Dwyer simply writes, "That's what happens when everyone's hopped up on reefer and gin." Tongue-in-cheek stories of prudish Puritans and monkey love are interspersed with bizarre kissing laws from around the U.S., and no entry lasts more than two pages.

Kiss & Tell is an amusing diversion, but at 127 lightly written pages (with pictures, I might add) the diversion doesn't last long. My advice: save yourself the $15, get a pizza at Romeo & Juliet's, pick up a bottle of Yellow Tail and rent a quirky romantic classic, like Benny & Joon. You'll score more points with your significant other, and save yourself from idly bringing up the kissing habits of Alexander the Great. (Rest assured, all you cash-strapped trivia lovers, "Jeopardy's" already secured a reference copy, and Alex Trebeck is perusing it this minute for French phrases that he can pronounce in his holier-than-thou, asshole-ish tone of voice.)

—peter koch

The Hookup Handbook
by Andrea Lavinthal and Jessica Rozler
Simon Spotlight Entertainment, 2005 $14.95

Ladies: If, as a single female, your idea of a really great Saturday night on the town does not include hours traversing various hot-spots on the Chip strip, clad either in too-tall heels, a too-short skirt, or a dangerously low-cut top, The Hookup Handbook probably isn't your best bet for a helpful read. However, for the hordes of you that typically migrate downtown each weekend night, crowding Buffalo's deserted city streets with cosmo-fueled abandon, Lavinthal and Rozler's guidebook to the newest way to "get together" will be, at the very least, an entertaining read. At its best, this anti-self-help book is a must-read for those in the game; offering hilarious insight, useful tips and dirty jokes. It's hilariously funny only if you've (shamefully) experienced the many, all-to-common and oftentimes unappealing situations described in the text.

At its heart, this is an anti-romantic, extremely sexually-liberated look at the dating scene today's pre and post-college grads encounter when looking for that not-so-special someone. I took it as a sort of twisted (and amusing) commentary on the fear of commitment that many of my peers so cruelly suffer through as the idea of "growing up" and settling down takes on an ever more unappealing veneer.

If you pick up this book looking for a fun, romantic Valentine's Day read à la Bridget Jones's Diary, I'd advise you to look elsewhere. If, however, you're young, single, and don't mind self-deprecating humor, Lavinthal and Rozler's Handbook may be just the thing to combat a case of the lonely Saturday night blues—that is, until eleven o'clock or so, when you slip into your cutest jeans, newest cami and heels to hit the strip.

—jill froebel

SHADOW LOUNGE & RESTAURANT

celebrating Valentine's Day

sat feb 11th, mon feb 13th, tues feb 14th

CHOICE OF APPETIZER
SALAD OR FONDUE
CHOICE OF 4 ENTREES
CHOICE OF 3 DESSERTS
GLASS OF HOUSE WINE

$55.⁰⁰ (plus tax) FOR 2
individual plates available... SINGLES WELCOME

FASHION SHOW BY BELLA
TUES FEB 14TH STARTING AT 7:30 PM

EVERY FRI IN FEB~ KENNY THOMASULA BREAKTHROUGH

EXPERIENCE THE SHADOW

1504 HERTEL 835-3975
visit us at www.artvoice.com

TOWNE AUTO CHOICE

OVER 60 CARS IN STOCK
UNDER $9,995!

662-7400 TOWNE, HOME OF THE REAL DEAL!
DON'T FORGET

1998 AUDI A6  STOCK #: FP13610A PRICE: $10,995 COLOR: SL MILEAGE: 93,180 Quattro V6 Wagon with leather, moon roof, and service records.	2001 BMW 530I  STOCK #: FP13276A PRICE: $26,995 COLOR: DL MILEAGE: 48,441 Big engine, moon roof, leather, low miles, high performance.	2002 FORD EXPLORER  STOCK #: E15082A PRICE: $12,996 COLOR: GR MILEAGE: 55,836 Sport with leather, moon roof, full power, 4x4, 2-door, super clean and ready to go.
2002 MERCEDES G-500  STOCK #: FP13712 PRICE: $46,995 COLOR: SL MILEAGE: 38,890 v8, super rare G-wagon, nav, moon roof, leather, brush guard, every option, over $100k new.	2005 HYUNDAI ACCENT  STOCK #: FP13662 PRICE: $11,995 COLOR: GY MILEAGE: 15,599 We have a few that just came in, all auto, power windows and locks, many miles of warranty years left. Great price!	2004 LEXUS LS430  STOCK #: FP13637 PRICE: $49,950 COLOR: CHARCOAL MILEAGE: 16,043 v8, premium package, charcoal grey-tan leather, rosewood trim, moon roof.

TOWNE AUTO CHOICE
3525 Southwestern Boulevard • Orchard Park, New York 14127
Visit us at www.towneauto.com

Corner of Southwestern Boulevard and Milestrip. One minute off the Milestrip East Exit of the 219 Expressway.

Hours:
Mon-Tue, Th-Sat - 9pm
Wed & Fri - 8pm
Sat 9am-5pm